Congrats on your great job. I really like what you have created in these forums: a real community of practice. Can anyone show me: How to make the video stop while the questions are being answered? How to add quiz questions on layers?

Hi Gonzalo. The video pausing is really simple, actually. You just click the gear icon and check the pause timeline option. To create the quiz questions on slide layers, I created one large image for the slide layer, image and questions, then added four radio buttons and a submit button.

Natalia, here is the .STORY file and a video that shows you how it works: source file.
